Description

The last work on the house was carried out in 2017. In general, the house is in perfect condition. The garden of 5,500 square metres is equipped with a lighting system.

Among the olive trees there is a small wooden pool and also an approved project to build another 4x10 metre underground pool. From this point of the garden there is a beautiful view of the hills.

In the outdoor area there is also a stone table, a barbecue and a small gazebo.

The villa is divided into two floors:

The main flat is on the upper floor. The entrance area leads through the approx. 30 square metre veranda.

Here there is a large and bright living room with kitchen, pantry and dining area. Near the kitchen is the second entrance to reach the outdoor dining area with BBQ. This floor also leads to the sleeping area with a studio/bedroom, a double bedroom and a bathroom with bath and shower. The upper floor is 118 m<sup>2</sup> in total and has air conditioning, a 12 kW stove and a heat pump. An LPG gas tank is located in the garden.
