Description

19th century farmhouse in rustic Tuscan style with outbuilding, swimming pool and about 3 hectares of land.

The property is located in the charming countryside of the municipality of Altopascio, a few kilometers from Lucca and has an area of about 250 m².

The property has been completely renovated, with particular attention to preserving the internal and external building features of the typical Tuscan country style.

On the ground floor we find a kitchen, a dining room with fireplace, a living room with fireplace, a study, a bathroom, a cellar and technical rooms.

On the first floor there are three bedrooms, a bathroom with hydromassage bath and shower and a large bedroom.

The farmhouse is surrounded by a completely fenced property.

The guest house of about 60 m² consists of a study, a kitchenette, a bedroom, a bathroom and a veranda.

Near the two buildings is the swimming pool with sunbathing areas and hydromassage.

A little further away from the two buildings we also find an artificial lake.

The house is equipped with photovoltaic and solar panels, an intelligent rainwater recovery system and a central dust extraction system.

Due to its characteristics and optimal location, the property is also very suitable for tourist rental.
